With the support of the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law, Istanbul University Faculty of Law, Criminal Law and Criminology Research and Application Centre, Leiden University and Leiden Law School will be organizing the fifth edition of the joint International Summer School, to be held in Istanbul, between the 3rd and 14th of July 2017

In keeping with tradition of its previous four editions, the 2017 joint ‘Law on the Bosphorus’ Summer School will focus on the transnational aspect of the International Human Rights Law application. More specific theme of the 2017 Summer School will be on the relationship between challenges of human trafficking, and smuggling of migrants and refugees. Related themes will be:

- Protection of refugee rights
- UN and regional response to refugee crises, migrant smuggling and human trafficking
- Protection of victims
- Health law and migrants
- Comparative criminal law in the arena of human trafficking and migrant smuggling
- Country and regional cases from Europe, Africa and Middle East

PROGRAM FORMAT: The summer school will consist of daily lectures, mooted clinics and mooted sessions, which will take place at the closing of the Summer School. The program also consists of diverse excursions to Criminal Justice and Migration Institutions in Turkey, i.e. to Police Headquarters, Istanbul Justice Palace, and a penitentiary institution. These excursions will include unique ‘on location’ lectures by experts in the field. The student presentation sessions will take place on the final day of the summer school. At the closing ceremony, special certificates will be awarded to the best team of students as well as to the best individual student presenter.

VENUE: The program will be held at the historic premises of Istanbul University's Faculty of Law. The Summer School will take full advantage of the unique opportunities offered by this unique venue, combining the academic program with Istanbul's rich history and architectural heritage.
