INTRODUCTION TO TURKISH CIVIL LAW

A brief history of Turkish Civil Law system will be given and Lectures will be held on certain basic concepts of Turkish Civil Law such as:

1- The Concept of Right
2- Types of Rights
3- Right Holder
4- To Qualify for and Lose a Right
   a- Legal Event
   b- Legal Act
   c- Legal Transaction

PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW

Following to the introduction to Public International Law, its evolution and distinctive features, the Legal Theory of Public International Law will be held. The sources of Public International Law will be taught in detail in the light of Status of the International Court of Justice. Legal transactions in Public International Law will also be taught. In the second semester, lectures will begin with the international legal personality, and in this context States, international organizations and natural persons will be examined. At the end of the term jurisdictional immunities of States and diplomatic immunities and privileges shall be held.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS LAW

Lectures will be held on inter-relationships among laws of different countries and the legal effects on individuals and business organizations. Topics include agency agreements, basic law of contracts, international contracts and administrations, basic intellectual property law, basic rules of business establishment.

PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW

Private international law course comprehends general principles of private international law, conflict of laws and international procedure law. During the course both Turkish and EU regulations are studied. Firstly general principles of private international law are explained on the basis of theories and Turkish court practice. Later on conflict of laws and international procedure law rules are explained. This part of the course is done as a comparative study between Turkish and EU regulations.

THE JUDGMENTS OF EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS ON THE RIGHT TO A FAIR TRIAL

Various seminars will be held by Professors from different European universities.

INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW

The main examination subject of Human Rights Law is the technical legal analyses of various systems which aim to recognize, protect and develop human rights. By that, the current human rights standards are explained and the students are made to reach the information about these standards. In this regard, the human rights instruments which Turkey is a party of are examined. Also the general and specific human rights instruments to which were adopted by United Nations, the European Convention on Human Rights which was adopted by Council of Europe, Inter-American Convention on Human Rights which was adopted by Organization of American States and African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights which was adopted by Organization of African Unity are generally examined. In addition to the general analyses of the regional and international systems, the rights exist in related conventions are examined in the light of their normative elements and jurisprudence. Moreover, the key of the mechanisms, “procedural law” is considered.